Approval of Minutes

A motion was made by Dean Kurtz, second by Rosa Rhoden, to approve the minutes of the November 13th, 2020 meeting. Motion passed.

Jean Corrao, Outreach Representative, Rogers Behavioral Health.

Jean gave a slide presentation (see attached) of the services offered at the six locations in Wisconsin. Treatment approaches are based on evidence-based models. Services include therapy groups, cognitive behavioral therapy, experiential therapy, and patient and family education. Their services treat a number of issues including depression, eating disorders, OCD and anxiety.

For a screening, call 800-767-4411. For information: <https://rogersbh.org/resources> or email contact Jean at: Jean.Corrao@rogersbh.org

Deilee Calvert, Calee Street Marketing

Deilee is the social media consultant for the coalition. She gave an overview of how algorithms work on Facebook and Instagram and how this information can be used. Here are some ways coalition members can increase the reach of the coalition's social media content: "like" our posts; comment on posts, tag people or partners that might have an interest in the content; share a post to your personal feed, share a post to your organization's page, invite a friend, people or partners to "like" our page. Any questions, contact deilee@caleestreet.com or Emi.

Coalition Survey Reminder

Emi reminded everyone to take the coalition survey:

Tracking In Kind Donations

Craig showed the google doc that will be used for members to track in kind. A reminder will be sent weekly, so members can record their in kind in "real time." Certain fields, such as your hourly rate will not be seen by other members. Craig will send an email in the next few weeks to launch this in January 2021. Any questions, contact Craig: craigh@jeffersoncountywi.gov

Next Meeting Date

Friday, January 8th, 2021 from 8:00 am to 9:00 am.

Adjourn

A motion was made by Dean Kurtz, second by Dominic Alvarez, to adjourn the meeting at 9:00 am. Motion passed.
